

Hoodstock VI – Saturday, September 12, 2009!

What began as a few friends having a live music party at Otterbein neighbor and UCP board member Russ Causey and his wife Jen's home along with neighbors Larry and Gracie Musher has now become an annual fundraiser to benefit the programs and services of United Cerebral Palsy (UCP) of Central Maryland. Last year's event raised more than $13,000 with an estimated attendance of 170!

This event will once again feature live acoustic music in the spirit of Woodstock and late 60's fashion with several wonderful singer songwriters, headlined by the band 4andO, which boasts three UCP board members – Russ Causey, John Lee, and Nick Richardson. Owen Johnson and Michael Teitelbaum round out the group.

Acoustic rock fans attend Hoodstock in their best hippie garb, enjoy a great music festival of music, food, wine, and beer and make donations in support of UCP and all they do to advance the independence of children and adults with cerebral palsy and other disabilities.
