NATIONAL VIDEOCONFERENCE AND WEBCAST TO SOLICIT INPUT ON THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE ON DISABILITY AND REHABILITATION
RESEARCH 2010-2014 LONG-RANGE PLAN

The National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research (NIDRR) today announced a national videoconference to solicit remarks regarding NIDRR's long-range plan for fiscal years 2010-2014. The purpose of the videoconference is to obtain ideas from the public on the content and direction of the new NIDRR long-range plan.

NIDRR, a component of the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services at the US Department of Education, is the major federal agency sponsoring disability research.

Videoconference: The videoconference will take place:

March 19, 2008
1 p.m. to 5 p.m. EST

There are several ways to participate:

- Attend in person at one of the eight sites across the country;
- Access the meeting via webcast; or
- Participate in a toll-free teleconference.

To learn more about locations and methods of participation and how to RSVP, please visit www.neweditions.net/nidrrlrp.

Other Input Opportunities: If you are unable to participate in the videoconference, webcast or teleconference, there are several alternate ways to submit comments through March 31, 2008.

Comments may be submitted via email, using the following address: NIDRR-Maibox@ed.gov or through the Web, using the following address: www.neweditions.net/nidrrlrp
